

HOUSE OF COMMONS

SESSIONAL DIARY
2008–09

3 December 2008
to 12 November 2009

Prepared in the Journal Office of the House of Commons

INTRODUCTION

1. This diary records the business on which the House spent its time in Session 2008–09, analysed into categories, and similar information for sittings in Westminster Hall. It is intended mainly to provide information in response to statistical inquiries, and in using it the following points should be borne in mind:

- (a) The diary does not include business which took little or no time, such as presentations of bills, unopposed private business, and motions agreed to without debate or division.
- (b) Divisions are normally included with the business to which they relate.
- (c) Timings are taken from the Official Report, using the printed times where available, and otherwise taking a column of debate to last three minutes. Daily prayers are assumed to last a standard five minutes (and are not itemised in the analysis), and the time at which the House rose is taken from the Votes and Proceedings.
- (d) Periods of suspension are included in the total sitting time, and are listed in section 14h of the analysis (Miscellaneous). However, the 2½-hour suspension from 11.30 to 14.00 in Westminster Hall on most Tuesdays and Wednesdays (introduced on 1 January 2003) is shown in brackets in the “Duration” column and is left out of the totals. Other suspensions in Westminster Hall are included in the totals and in the analysis under section 5.
- (e) The times in the column headed “After appointed time” refer to business taken after the time appointed as the “moment of interruption”. In Session 2008–09, these times were as follows:

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
2200	2200	*1900	1800	1430

* 2200 on the day of the State Opening of Parliament and immediately following a periodic adjournment.

- (f) All times are in hours and minutes, using the 24-hour clock.
2. A Sessional Diary has been kept in the Journal Office for most sessions since 1906, although in the early years times were kept only to the nearest quarter hour. An analysis substantially in the current form begins in the 1960s. The totals from the analysis have been reproduced in the Sessional Information Digest since 1984–85 and in the House’s Sessional Returns since 1987–88.

21.00	Consideration: Political Parties and Elections Bill [resumed]	0.01
21.01	Point of Order: Mr David Heath: asking whether there was any precedent for putting separately the question on a completely undebated new clause, in a group not yet reached, that had been proposed by a group of Back Benchers from an opposition party and that had not been moved.	0.01
21.02	Consideration: Political Parties and Elections Bill [resumed] [Divisions]	0.24
21.26	Points of Order: Mr Gordon Prentice: asking whether, since a vote had been allowed on another clause that had not been moved, the Deputy Speaker would consider allowing votes on other un-moved amendments that had considerable backbench support. Dr Gavin Strang: asking for confirmation that it was very unusual for a vote to be allowed on a new clause from a group that had not been reached, and asking for an explanation as to why the Speaker allowed a vote to take place on this clause. 21.42	Consideration: Political Parties and Elections Bill [resumed]	0.03
21.45	Points of Order: Mr David Heath: asking for assurance that the procedure for voting on amendments had been correctly followed. Mr John Gummer: asking for the Deputy Speaker to explain why the unusual decision regarding voting on amendments had been made. Mr Simon Hughes: asking for confirmation of whether sufficient questions had been put for the final clause considered to be added to the Bill. Mr David Heath: asking for clarification that, in considering the procedure governing whether a matter is debated before it is added to the Bill, backbench amendments are to be treated quite differently from Government amendments.	0.06

Time	Subject	Duration	After appointed time
	Simon Hughes: asking whether the Speaker would reflect on whether there had been an unwitting breach of procedure, and would allow an opportunity for debate on the clause in question. Sir Alan Beith: asking for an assurance that the clause in question had actually been moved, as he had heard no evidence to support that. Dr Julian Lewis: asking to put on the record the fact that although the Government and the Opposition had treated the vote on the clause in question as a free vote, the Liberal Democrats had whipped their members to vote a particular way.

Simon Hughes: asking for guidance on when the power to vote separately on amendments that had not been reached when the guillotine fell would be applied, and asking to make clear that while Members wished for more time for debate, they did not wish for more time for voting, with no chance of debate. Peter Luff: asking whether there was any way that the questions on nomination of members to Regional Select Committees could be grouped, so that those opposing Regional Select Committees in general would only have to detain the House with a single division.	0.06

Miss Julie Kirkbride: asking to put on record that the West Midlands Regional Select Committee had also failed to meet the previous day because it had been inquorate, and asking whether, if there was a consistent pattern of such committees being unable to meet because they were inquorate, there would be a case for reviewing their very existence. Mr Crispin Blunt: asking whether the change between the new motion and the motion rejected by the House on 25 June was consistent with the spirit of the position taken by the House on 25 June, and for clarification on the minimum change that would be required in order for a generally similar motion to be acceptable. Mr David Heath: asking for Members to be informed of the precise location of the meeting of the East Midlands Regional Grand Committee, in the event that this information was not included in the motion itself. Miss Julie Kirkbride: asking to put on record that the West Midlands Regional Select Committee had also failed to meet the previous day because it had been inquorate, and asking whether, if there was a consistent pattern of such committees being unable to meet because they were inquorate, there would be a case for reviewing their very existence. 14 Jul 09	Mr Peter Bone: asking the Speaker to prevent the Government from moving the motion relating to the East Midlands Regional Grand Committee, firstly because the rubric on the Order Paper was misleading, and secondly because the motion was almost exactly the same as that rejected by the House on 25 June. Andrew Mackinlay: asking whether he was right in thinking that the Standing Orders relating to Regional Grand Committees required a more specific location to be given for the meeting of the Committees than simply the name of a town. Mr Crispin Blunt: asking whether the change between the new motion and the motion rejected by the House on 25 June was consistent with the spirit of the position taken by the House on 25 June, and for clarification on the minimum change that would be required in order for a generally similar motion to be acceptable. Mr David Heath: asking for Members to be informed of the precise location of the meeting of the East Midlands Regional Grand Committee, in the event that this information was not included in the motion itself. Mr Bernard Jenkin: asking whether it was indeed the case that only the Government could make time for debate on a motion relating to the establishment of the Select Committee intended to strengthen the position of the House in relation to the executive, and whether the Speaker appreciated the irony in this.	0.17	0.17
